

Table of Contents Excerpts from Our Bullying Investigation Training

SECTION 6 – TOPICS FROM OUR TRAINING MANUAL THAT DEMONSTRATE THE DEPTH OF THIS PROGRAM

Section Six: The Art of Interviewing

Quality Counts; Be Prepared!: Identify The Issues .....	6:3
Prepare Key Questions: A Statement or An Interview.....	6:4
Preliminary Considerations: To Tape or Not To Tape; If You Do Tape .....	6:5
If They Ask To Tape: Transcripts.....	6:5
Choose a Location and Schedule the Interviews.....	6:6
Guidelines for Choosing a Location: What if the Interviewee Brings a Lawyer?.....	6:6
What if They Want to “Take the Fifth”? : Assessing Credibility.....	6:7
Assess the Credibility of the Witness: How Can You Tell When Someone Is Lying?.....	6:8
Compare Statements and Identify Issues.....	6:8
What If The Witness Implicates Him/Herself? What If The Interviewee Makes Gestures?.....	6:9
What About Group Interviews? Confidentiality and Interviewing.....	6:9
Any Confidentiality Between Me and Students or Employees?.....	6:10
Confidentiality in the “Informal” Phase? What’s The Alternative?.....	6:10
Minimize The Risk Of Harm and Liability: Who Needs To Know?.....	6:11
Keeping the Complainant Informed.....	6:11
How Does The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Apply? .....	6:12
What about School Counselors? .....	6:12
Counselors, Ethics and the Law.....	6:13
Questioning Techniques to Get to The Truth.....	6:14
Avoid Leading Questions: Do Not Paraphrase; Start With Foundational/Background Questions.....	6:14
Ask Clarifying Questions: Ask Probing Questions; Ask Observational Questions .....	6:15
Ask Hypothetical Questions.....	6:15
Use Mental Image Building: Ask Confrontational Questions.....	6:16
Ask Verifying Questions: Mastery.....	6:16

Section Seven Deals with the Specific Interviewing Techniques for Complainant, Alleged Perpetrator and Witnesses